

Nostalgia and Generosity Grace Inaugural Khaki and Plaid Party

Bedecked in khaki and plaid, Catholic school supporters poured into the University of the Incarnate Word McDermott Convocation Center on January 30, 2010, ready to relive their schooldays. The great turnout led to a very successful Hope for the Future Inaugural Khaki & Plaid Party. More than 500 guests enjoyed a dinner catered by the RK Group and the music of Robb Swain and the Hurricanes. All proceeds benefited Hope for the Future tuition assistance program which affords financially deserving families the opportunity to send their children to the Catholic school of their choice.

The event raised more than $130,000 and most importantly, a greater awareness of the invaluable impact Catholic schools have on the education and formation of San Antonio students and ultimately to the local community.

“We offer our great appreciation to all our benefactors, supporters, board members and sponsors, whose prayers and generosity made the inaugural Khaki & Plaid Party such a success. We are already making plans for next year’s event,” said Julie Seguin, Director, Hope for the Future.

All Catholic alumni are encouraged to call or e-mail the Hope for the Future office to become a part of this exciting undertaking that is both enhancing Catholic schools and making them affordable to all children.
